Mt Shasta CA Spiritual Retreat July 27, 28 & 29, 2018

Glorious Mt. Shasta is both the Heart Chakra of North America and, since the time of the Pacific Continent of Lemuria, has also served as one of the world headquarters of The Order of the Seven Rays (aka The Great White Brotherhood).

Don't miss this one-time opportunity to participate in a transformative weekend of short hikes on The Mountain to out-of-the-way power places for group and individual meditation, as well as energy activations to access higher states of consciousness and to further open your own Heart Center.

RETREAT FACILITATORS

Author Mark Amaru Pinkham & SSJ's Director Andrea Mikana-Pinkham are trained shamanic practitioners, energy workers, Yoga & meditation teachers who have been visiting Mt Shasta regularly for the last 30 years.

From Mark Amaru:

*Beginning in 1986, the first time I visited Mount Shasta, the "Heart Chakra of North America", it has never failed to both heal and more fully open my heart.
My most dramatic moment on the mountain occurred at the 10,000 ft level one sunny August afternoon when I spontaneously united with the Immortal Spirit within my Heart.
At once I realized that I had existed forever and that the creator and center of the universe dwells not only within me, but within everyone's heart.
I now fully comprehend the words of the enlightened masters:
God dwells within all of us as us.*

From Andrea:

*My introduction to Mt Shasta was in 1989 during a road trip with Mark, who wanted to introduce me to this most special sacred site.
I was profoundly affected by the powerful heart-centered energies of The Mountain!
The deep peace and transcendental bliss that I experienced then, and each time that I've been back, carries me through the challenges of life.
Just picturing myself back on The Mountain relieves the stresses and challenges I encounter on my spiritual path.*

I hope that you will decide to join us so that you too can experience the peace and love that will surely reach out to you from the depths and heights of The Mountain!

Mark and I will bring our extensive backgrounds and experience in shamanism, holistic health and healing to the retreat in order to support you to have the most profound experience possible as you connect with Mt Shasta and its amazing transformational energies... and your own Heart Center.
