Highlights of our Sacred Sites Journey to Egypt April 1 - 12, 2009

Our April Sacred Sites Journey to Egypt was an awesome success!

Everyone in the group was able to access the powerful energies of the temples during our meditations. Shahrzad Awyan, daughter of Wisdom Keeper Hakim Awyan, is carrying on his legacy. She was with us in Giza, Dashur, Sakkara, Memphis, Abusir, and Abu Ghurob. She lovingly extended her gifts of hands-on healing and toning, as well as her psychic abilities to read where each person is in each moment. In the photo below, she is offering energy healing during our time in the Red Pyramid at Dashur.

We were very excited to find out that we could now visit Hathor's Temple at Dendera without having to travel in a convoy with other tourists, and thus have our time set by group schedule. We were able to spend over four hours there!

We visited the Crypt, where we saw the "Dendera Light Bulb", a very controversial panel on the walls. Did they ancient Egyptians have light bulbs??? Did they have electricity? Hmmmm? While down in the crypt, so few people were visiting at that time of day that we were able to be alone for a while and receive an initiation into the Mysteries of Hathor. Afterwards, we visited the temple with our Guide Vivian Zaki, PhD Archaeologist/Egyptologist. And, we were able to enter the little Temple of Isis behind the main temple, where we enjoyed a quiet time of private meditation. I had forgotten the date that it was built. During my meditation I saw Cleopatra come into the temple and bow in devotion to Isis and Hathor. Afterwards I asked Vivian the date; seems it coincided with those for her reign as Queen Cleopatra VII!

In Luxor we we made an early morning (6AM!) visit to the Chapel of Sekhmet in the Temple of Ptah at Karnak. (The archaeologists are working there and start work at 7AM, so invited us to come before that time. We were there with smiles on!) As usual, Sekhmet bestowed her loving blessings on each of us! The symbol today for women's empowerment, She stands as a beacon to all who are seeking to reclaim parts of the Divine Feminine within. And assists everyone who asks for help in doing so. Be clear what you ask for. It WILL happen. Sekhmet rules!

Afterwards we were able to explore Karnak Temple, virtually alone, as we were there before the morning crowds gathered. What a lovely treat! The photo above is of the Festival Hall of Tuthmosis III, the Pharaoh who was co-regent with Queen Hatshepsut, and then ruled after her. Though he is usually portrayed as the "Napoleon of Egypt" he also had a deep spiritual side. Some researchers and intuitives believe that he was a part of the Great White Brotherhood. Thus, we were on hallowed ground. We were alone in the Hall, so took the opportunity to meditate. During my meditation I received guidance to found an Egyptian Mystery School with my friends the Awyan Family. I was so excited that I called Shahrzad as soon as we ended our meditation. When I told her, she just laughed. I was non-plussed until she explained that she'd also received the same message that morning during her meditation time. So....it's a reality. The Khemet School of Ancient Mysticism is being birthed. I'll be informing you of its birth process in subsequent enewsletters, so stay tuned!

One of the other highlights for all of us was our afternoon visit to the Temple of Isis in Aswan. The crowds for the day were gone, and once again we found ourselves virtually alone. In the Holy of Holies, when we invited Her into our hearts, Isis came! She showered us with her Mother Love and Divine Healing, and initiated us into Her ageless Mysteries. Each person received a Gift of Spirit that will last a lifetime.

Our Closing Ceremony and Meditation during our private entrance into the Great Pyramid was an experience of a lifetime. Each person was able to lie in the initiation box (photo above) for private meditation. Shahrzad was with us and again offered her healing tones! We all received personal messages from Spirit, and raised our frequencies. Our Ascension Process happened!

The Money Energizer

I've been using the Money Energizer in my wallet for several years now to assist me in manifesting my financial abundance. It does work! I'd like to pass this gem of a tool on to you, our Sacred Sites Journeys readers.

So many of us on the spiritual path have tried all the woo-woo tricks in the book. We've written our "dream list" and have slept with it under our pillow. We've visualized everything about our dreams right down to every detail. We've even practiced reciting affirmations over and over, saying aloud for the neighbors to hear as we walk the dog, "I now have all the money for my dreams. I now have a new wonderful _____ that is just perfect for me!" and yet - it still hasn't worked.

We're still struggling -- with something...Feeling lack of, not enough, or unfulfilled in the work we do, more annoyed than ever that all the MAGIC did nothing but make us feel foolish, and cause the neighbors (and the dog!) to look at us with pity and concern. What's are we to do? Read on!

There is a technique that is used by many of the world's spiritual traditions and religions, that can lead to incredible spiritual development. And, what most modern seekers do not realize is that this same technology can lead to dramatic financial growth as well. It is used by Catholics (Hail Mary anyone?), Hindus, and Buddhists, as well as others. What is this magic secret? It's the regular recitation of mantras, spiritual words or phrases that carry an energetic vibrational frequency that can supercharge any area of your life.

ADD NOW, the VISUAL impact of the Money Energizer while reciting the mantra, "I energize my wallet with this messenger of wealth, and I add to my good fortune with a prayer for my good health. One creates great happiness while the other provides the ability to give to those less fortunate than I."

Then all you have to do is FOCUS - put your attention on what you DO want, and if and when your thought wanders to what you want to get rid of, simply choose to shift it back to focusing on what you want. Period.

This ancient wisdom works on the energy centers of the body to balance your masculine and feminine energies and thus increase your own capacity for more money in your life, to allow you to manifest your dreams and more. So, you see. There ARE magic words to make your wishes come true - you just need to add the Energy of the Money Energizer! Put one in your wallet, and one in your checkbook and most important pass them out to your friends and family. There's plenty of abundance for everyone... PASS it FORWARD.

Astrological Influences for May 2009

By Mark Amaru Pinkham, Western and Vedic Astrologer

The Sun will be in the Zodiacal sign of Taurus until the 21st of May, so this month is an excellent time to immerse yourself in activities involved with the Earth. Hike, explore and lie down among the May flowers. With Mars in Aries you'll have more energy, and this placement will also assist you in beginning an outdoor project, such as planting a garden or building a compost corral. Venus in Aries makes the month ideal for seeking out a new friendship or romance, or initiating a creative project. Get together with others for spiritual work or sacred travel this month, especially after the 21st, because the spiritual planets Jupiter and Neptune will be moving together through Aquarius, the sign of groups and organizations. The latter part of May will also be ideal for all short journeys, study, and writing because the Sun will then begin its transit through the sign Gemini, the sign of the intellect, learning and communication.

Mark Amaru Pinkham has been involved in the study and practice of natural healing for over 25 years.

He studied elements of Ayurveda (Hindu Medicine) for seven years in his 20's. During this time he also attended massage school and became a Licensed Massage Therapist.
